Make a difference with a gift from Misericordia's Bakery

Misericordia -- which means "heart of mercy" in Latin -- offers a wide range of exceptional programs for children and adults with mild to profound developmental disabilities. The individuals supported by Misericordia come from diverse racial, religious and socio-economic backgrounds.

One of the most popular work programs at Misericordia is the Hearts & Flour Bakery, which provides fulfilling jobs for more than 45 adults with developmental disabilities. Responsibilities in the bakery are tailored to meet the unique abilities of each person, from scooping chocolate chip cookie dough to helping prepare orders for shipment.

Be a part of the success of the Hearts & Flour Bakery! Not only are you treating your family, friends and business associates to delicious baked goods, you can also feel great about supporting challenging jobs for adults with disabilities.

Our baked goods will arrive fresh at the recipient's doorstep, anywhere in the U.S. The easiest way to place your order is to visit us at www.misericordia.com.
